

Mrs. Olive Liscomb, who has had charge of the Rock Island Eating House at this place for the past fifteen months, has been sent from here to Santa Rosa to assume the management of the railroad eating house there, succeeding Mrs. Walker who comes here. Mrs. Liscomb has made a decided success in the management of the house here, and we assure the people of Santa Rosa that the management of the eating house of the Southwestern will be conducted in a most satisfactory manner.

A Mexican section hand while working on the Dawson branch a few miles above here Thursday afternoon, was bitten on the right hand by a rattle snake, inflicting a very painful wound. He was brought into town on No. 123 and taken to the office of Dr. H. D. Nichols who then injected some medicine into his arm, which had already begun to turn black. His arm was then bound in a tight bandage near the elbow, thus keeping all poison below the elbow. He was later sent to the company's hospital at Alamogordo.
